The Olde Bell: Meetings Spaces

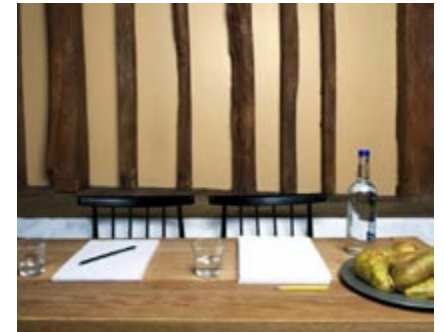

The Olde Bell: Meetings

Spaces

The meetings spaces at The Olde Bell have been designed with flexibility in mind. We understand that each event is unique and has different requirements, with this outlook we have set about re designing our spaces to appeal to today's business user.

THE TITHE BARN

A 16th century barn with original beams and rafters. Carefully restored, this is the ideal venue for larger meetings and events.

THE GARDEN ROOM

WITHIN THE MALT HOUSE

Full of natural day light and with access directly into a private garden. The room is light in colour and dominated by an original fireplace and high ceilings.

The Olde Bell: Meetings

Spaces

THE DRAWING ROOM WITHIN THE MALT HOUSE

The largest of the spaces within the Malt House. The room contains a discreet bar, making it ideal for informal meetings or evening events. Equally the abundance of natural light and shape of the room means that day conferences are accommodated with ease.

THE MUSIC ROOM WITHIN THE MALT HOUSE

With views of the lawn and garden through French windows This naturally coloured space lends itself to theatre style and u-shape presentations equally.

The Olde Bell: Meetings

Spaces

THE OAK ROOM WITHIN THE MALT HOUSE

The Oak room is a grand Victorian panelled room, ideal for boardroom meetings of up to 18 persons. Alternatively the surrounds create an inviting, snug atmosphere for evening dining.

THE LIBRARY WITHIN THE MALT HOUSE

The smallest room within the Malt House is ideally suited to intimate meetings or the perfect break out space from the Oak room.

The Olde Bell: Meetings

Eating and drinking

Eating and drinking is central to the Inn. The kitchen provides locally sourced food, served simply. Using local suppliers from butchers, to the farms who supply beautiful vegetables and also introduced us to the local beekeeper.

LUNCH MENU

Sample seasonal dishes served during lunch include:

Homemade breads & olives
Minestrone soup
Home cured salmon & pickled cucumber
Pear & Spenwood cheese salad

DINNER MENU

Sample seasonal dishes served for supper include:

Spinach & ricotta risotto, sage butter
Smoked haddock rarebit
Confit duck leg & lentils
Pan fried lambs sweetbreads, bacon, peas & mint

Should you have a favourite dish or wish to discuss the menu offered to your delegates our chef and his team would be delighted to help. Alternatively our chef would be more than happy to create a bespoke menu for your event and cost this according to market prices.
