

Directions from London

By car

From London take the M4 motorway west to Heathrow airport and follow the motorway to junction 8/9, exit and follow signs for Henley. At the next roundabout (Burchetts Green) take the A4130 towards Hurley and Henley. Follow this road, passing the Red Lion on the left and Temple Golf Club on your right, continue down the hill. You will come to a signpost pointing right to Hurley Village, take this turning. The Olde Bell Inn is approximately 800 yards down on the right, with the car park immediately opposite.

From the M40 Exit at junction 4 and proceed onto the A404 going in the direction of Maidenhead / Henley. At the first roundabout continue on the A404 towards Henley / Hurley. This dual carriageway links with the M4 so look for the slip road signposted Hurley / Henley (A4130). At the roundabout (Burchetts Green) turn right onto the A4130 and follow the directions as above. The journey from the M40 takes approximately 10/15 minutes.

By train
